

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my sincere interest in the Manager of Operations position at your newly opening wine bar/ restaurant. My name is Ashre'll Sparks, and I am excited about the prospect of contributing my skills and experience to ensure the success of your establishment.

With a solid background in start-up management and a passion for delivering exceptional customer experiences, I am confident in my ability to oversee and optimize operational processes. My hands-on experience in the hospitality industry, coupled with a keen understanding of wine and culinary trends, positions me as a valuable candidate for this role.

I am adept at managing teams, implementing efficient workflows, and maintaining high standards of service. I am enthusiastic about the opportunity to contribute to the growth and reputation of your wine bar restaurant, creating a welcoming environment where guests can indulge in unique wine selections and culinary delights.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of discussing how my skills align with your vision for the restaurant.

Sincerely,

Ashre'll Sparks
